SENSATIONAL IS DIVORCE CASE OF COUNTESS ANNA

Boni Treated Her Cruelly

PARIS, Oct. 31,-That Count Boni De Castellane frequently struck and slapped his wife during the scenes between the two when he made oft repeated demands for money was the startling declaration made by Countess Anna's attorney, Maitre Crupi, in the hearing of the Countess' suit for divorce which began to-day. Other equally startling revelations as to the unhappy lot to which the Countess has submitted during the years of her married life were made and the whole hearing promises to be sensational in the extreme. Cruppi opened the hearing by demanding an absolute divorce for his client and the custody of the children. A letter from Mrs. Millington Drake was offered by Cruppi, showing that Bonis' brutalities to his wife began three months after her marriage. Anna only brought peace by yielding her entire income to her husband. Another letter was shown to the effect that recently Boni held the purse strings and had allowed the Countess only between sixty and eighty dollars a month for her personal expenses. She begged him to raise this allowance to two hundred, but Boni refused her gruffly. Several instances of infidelity on the part of Count Boni were detailed by Cruppi, but the names of the women concerned were suppressed. It is the intention of the Countess Anna to remain in P. after securing the divorce and o rear Annual Report of

Election Tuesday, Nov. 6th

AN APPEAL TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF WEST VIRGINIA:

THE ELECTION IS AT HAND, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH IS THE DAY! On that day you will either approve or disapprove of the record and work of the REPUBLICAN PARTY. You can approve by CASTING YOUR BALLOT FOR THE PARTY; you can disapprove by voting against it, or by NOT VOTING AT ALL.

The four years of President Harrison's administration, 1888 to 1892, were prosperous years; 1892, his last year, was the most prosperous year in the history of our country up to that time.

In 1892 the people voted for a change; they got it. Many Republicans DID NOT VOTE; they also assisted to make a change. They did not think there was any danger.

DO YOU REMEMBER THE HARD TIMES UNDER CLEVELAND, FROM 1902 to 1907? DO YOU WANT THEM TO RETURN?

In 1896 you voted for another change; you elected William McKinley, and from that time on we have had good times, prosperity and development; and this year is the most prosperous year our country has ever known. Do you want to stop it? If so, vote the Democratic ticket, or FAIL TO VOTE.

No State in the Union has had greater benefits than West Virginia during this period, 1806 to 1906. The development is simply phenomenal. The new tax laws have vindicated themselves, both by making taxes taxes more nearly equal and by reducing the burien of taxes on the people. Ninety persons out of every hundred have had substantial reductions in their taxes this year compared with 1901. Do you want to stop this? Do you want to go back to the old laws? If so, vote the Democratic ticket, or FAIL TO VOTE.

Do you want to stand by the President in his great work of breaking up monopolies and caring for the rights of all the people? Is there a patriotic citizen, Democrat or Republican, who loes not want to see the President supported? Will you repudiate him now right in the midst of his great work-right in the middle of his term?

The times are propitlous for a sweeping victory for good government, just taxation and a continuance of good times. But there is danger. That danger is that the Republicans WILL NOT COME OUT AND VOTE.. If Republicans stay at home, we will suffer defeat with all its evil consequences.

LET EVERY REPUBLICAN VOTE! VOTE EARLY AND SEE THAT HIS NEIGHBOR VOTES!

H. C. WOODYARD, Chairman, Republican State Committee.

WHEELING, Oct. 31.-Hop. WIL liam P. Hubbard, Republican candi date for Congress, opened his campaign in Ohio county last night by addressing two well-attended and enthusiastic meetings. Hubbard's first appearance was at the Vigilant Engine House, on North Main street, where the Republicans of Washington district gave him a hearty welcome Later in the evening he spoke to another audience at Mozart Hall.

False Charges Answered. The features of special interest in both addresses were Mr. Hubbard's sweeping reply to the libelous efforts to make it appear that he has been unfriendly to the cause of labor. He showed in detail that the alleged' eighthour bill which he opposed in 1881 was a bill that was unconstitutional, was not introduced by a labor leader but by a Democratic politician; that it established the most absurd and unjust limitations on labor, and that in legislature largely Democratic, it was defeated by a vote of 46 to 11. Mr. Hubbard also gave a full reply to the questions asked by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and challenged a publication of Mr. Riley's answer to the same questions. His discussion of the tax laws, and of the benefits of Republican administration were effective and convincing at every

CHARLESTON, Oct. 31.-According to a decision handed down by Judge Poffenbarger, Judge Ritz was in error when he held the Powhatan Coal & Coke Company in contempt for refusing to carry out a contract with the Pocahontas Coal Company.

The case is a celebrated one and attracted much attention throughout the State. Judge Sanders dissented in the decision. The gist of the decision is that where a defendant held in contempt afterwards wins the case there is no contempt.
